What is this "Lifting Leaders"?

During each session we discuss a leadership topic recommended by the cohort. This series is designed for educators who are currently teaching, serving as department heads, assistant principals, athletic directors or in central office roles who feel compelled to become school building administrators. *We welcome anyone who has interest in the topic to attend regardless if you are an aspiring administrator.

Upcoming Series Dates: March 13, 2018

April 11, 2018 (Each date features a different topic)
