

DR. BRYAN DROST

Director, Curriculum and Instruction

BryanD@SummitESC.org
330.945.5600 ext. 513922

B.A. Education – Hiram College
M.Ed. Educational Foundations – Kent State University
Ph.D. Curriculum, Instruction, Assessment – Kent State University
Principal's License – Ursuline College
Superintendent License – Kent State University

Dr. Bryan R. Drost is the Director of Curriculum and Instruction. He has served as principal, curriculum director, and teacher for various Northeast Ohio school districts. Bryan holds a variety of roles at the state and national levels, not limited to the following:

- ODE Network of Regional Leader
- ODE Content Advisory Committee Member
- ODE Fairness and Test Use Committee Member
- ODE Model Curriculum Writer
- NAEP Achievement Level Descriptor Member
- Northeast Ohio TALK Network Steering Committee Member
- RESA Scorer, Coder, and Lead
- National Supervisor for edTPA
- NCME's Standards and Test Use Committee
- Ohio's Standards Advocates – Mathematics State Lead
- Roster Verification Trainer / Regional Data Lead Value Added Lead for Regions 4, 8
- OLAC facilitator
- Reviewer for AERA Divisions H & K

Bryan has written a wide-range of articles related to curriculum, instruction, technology, differentiated instruction, and assessment. He has also presented at national, state, and regional conferences.

Some of the services that Dr. Drost provides to districts are as follows:

- Curriculum Mapping
- Curriculum Audits
- Instructional Shifts
- Technology Integration
- Assessment Writing
- Assessment Literacy
- Value Added Supports
- World Language Supports
- RESA Mentorship and program coordination
- Curriculum Visioning
- OTES/OPES/OSCES supports
- Oversees C&I Staff